Extinctive prescription is an issue of decisive and legal importance in any dispute. If a claim has been extinguished by the lapse of time, that is usually the end of the dispute, or at least the arbitration. The claim is no more, consequently the arbitration is no more. The defense of extinctive prescription usually means that the issue of applicable law is brought to a head, and the tribunal ...

Extinctive Prescription On The Limitation Of Actions

Extinctive Prescription and Public International Law . Kaj HobÃ©r. 3.1 Introduction Under most municipal law systems the lapse of time may influence the possibility to present claims in a court of law or before an arbitral tribunal. Generally speaking, delay in presenting a claim â€“ however such delay is defined â€“ may bar a party from presenting a claim. Municipal law generally contains ...
