Effects of supermarket shopping on diets and nutrition in urban Kenya are analyzed. Panel survey data are used to estimate regression models with individual fixed effects.

Supermarket Shopping and Nutritional Outcomes: A Panel

A food desert is an area, especially one with low-income residents, that has limited access to affordable and nutritious food. In contrast, an area with supermarkets or vegetable shops is a food oasis. The designation considers the type and quality of food available to the population, in addition to the number, nature, and size of food stores ...
